

The library system had the 17th highest circulation per capita among the 53 county systems in fiscal year 2006-2007.

Notable Stories

Notable African-American library users include Tony nominated Samm-Art Williams who used the Carter G. Woodson Negro Branch in Burgaw, and published poet and University of Tennessee professor, Earl Bragg, who used the bookmobile in coastal Hampstead.

Special Collections

Pender County History collections